

Integrate: Plan for What's Next

STEP 1: Brainstorm the very next step you can invite people to take after they've participated in your SPP. Consider each of the five champion development categories below. Next steps may be static invitations that are available year-round or related to an upcoming ministry event.

	Praying	Learning	Serving	Sharing	Giving
PLUR Way Example	Pray for the next rave.	Come to a lunch-n-learn to find out what it takes to be a rave mom or dad.	Help pack supplies for the next rave.	Host a Kandi-Land micro-event and invite friends to make bracelets with you.	Donate to cover the costs of the bracelets or give toward rave supplies.

STEP 2: Decide what you can do to acknowledge the step people just took, invite the next step, and report the results to your SPP participants. Consider the timeframes within of 1-2 days, a month, and three months after participation.

	WITHIN 1-2 DAYS	WITHIN A MONTH	WITHIN 2-3 MONTHS
ACKNOWLEDGE	Example: Email acknowledgment with a receipt of order and ETA on their kits arrival.	Example: Send a video testimonial of someone who received a bracelet.	Example: Thank-you included in program report linked to a specific project.
INVITE	Example: Join our private Facebook prayer page to get real-time rave updates that you can be praying for.	Example: Make a gift to fund a Rave Mom for a night of outreach using the bracelets to connect with ravers.	Example: Come to a rave send-off to pray over the Rave Moms and Dads.
REPORT	Example: Share a story of a recent Raver who received a bracelet and the journey that opened up for them.	Example: Send a stock email with an impact story showing the power of the bracelets.	Example: Include bracelet report in monthly e-newsletter.
